

Street Art at Teufelsberg

Teufelsberg is one of Europe's largest street art galleries, featuring impressive works by international artists. Here, you can discover pieces by renowned street artists such as El Bocho, Nina Valkhoff, and Dan Kitchener. The colorful murals and artworks turn every walk into a visual adventure. Throughout the entire site, you will find QR codes that offer more information about the artworks and their creators. Many of these works tell fascinating stories or address current social issues. Get inspired by the creative atmosphere, explore the artworks in detail, and dive into the vibrant art scene.

Your Vision - Our Panorama!

Whether a corporate event, wedding, conference, or gala dinner - we offer the perfect setting for any occasion. Our flexible event spaces can be customized to suit your needs and accommodate events of all kinds. Send us your inquiry now at: events@teufelsberg-berlin.de

To make sure you don't miss any events at Teufelsberg, follow us on Instagram

 @teufelsberg.official

Want to learn more about the history and street art of Teufelsberg?

Join one of our tours!

Find more details on our Website:

www.teufelsberg-berlin.de

OPENING HOURS

Daily from 11.00 AM - Sunset

Last Entry: One hour before sunset

CONTACT

Radarstation Teufelsberg

Teufelsseechaussee 10

D 14193 Berlin

E-Mail: info@teufelsberg-berlin.de

WELCOME TO TEUFELSBURG

Welcome to Teufelsberg!

Teufelsberg, a 120-meter-high non-natural hill in Berlin, was created from the rubble of World War II. The hill was built between 1950 and 1972 on the remains of the unfinished Military-Technical Faculty. Known for the former Allied listening station that operated from 1963 to 1994 during the Cold War, with its radar domes still dominating the skyline today, Teufelsberg is now a popular tourist destination. Enjoy the stunning views over Berlin and explore the rich history of this unique site.

more about the history of Teufelsberg

- 1 Main Entrance/Ticket Office
- 2 Exhibition - Declassified NEW!
- 3 Document Shredding Facility
- 4 Old Canteen/Eventlocation
- 5 Museum of Alliierten in Berlin e.V.
- 6 Street Art Gallery in the Tower
- 7 Basketball Court
- 8 Letter Roof
- 9 Sculpture Garden